Deans Awards

These awards recognise those students who have demonstrated aspects of the College's Values; Honour Others (Me whaimana te iwi), Honour Your Environment (Me whaimana te taiao) and Honour Yourself (Me whaimana te tangata).

Year 11

We move now to the Senior Deans' Awards. These awards recognise those students who have demonstrated aspects of the College's Motto and Values.

Samuel Connolly

Since entering the senior school Samuel continues to be a role model by portraying the College's values at all times. He is an enthusiastic and dedicated student who always tries his best. Samuel encompasses all these great qualities whilst interacting with staff and his peers respectfully and with care. Teachers often comment that it is an absolute pleasure to have Samuel in their class not only for his work ethic, but for his manaaki of others. Samuel is a true asset to Ōtorohanga College.

Luke Coles

Luke strives for academic excellence in all of his subjects. His diligent tracking of his own personal progress and commitment to his learning has ensured he has a high number of Excellence and Merit credits. As well as his academic focus, Luke is involved in a wide range of activities around the College. He participates in all lunchtime House competitions and also plays cricket, basketball, rugby, soccer, chess and takes drum lessons. Luke is a model student at Ōtorohanga College.

Kiera Mansell

Keira has honoured herself in her determination, work ethic, commitment and resilience. In doing so she has also honoured the environment of Ōtorohanga College by role modelling academic endeavours. During her commitment to and performance in cricket, soccer, netball, swimming and cross country she also demonstrates our values where she shows both determination and sportspersonship.

Rylan Percival

Rylan demonstrates the College values by having an amazing attitude to all areas of College life. He always strives to complete tasks set to a high standard. Rylan is very keen to help others improve their skills and shares his knowledge often. Teachers have noted Rylan's ability to persevere with challenges. He role models positive behaviour that rubs off on his peers. Rylan interacts with both staff and his classmates with genuine care.

Year 12

Taylor Burgess

Taylor is a kind, compassionate, supportive and determined member of the College. His selfless and gentle nature surrounds him with a wide group of friends. Taylor is always involved in class activities and demonstrates leadership and perceptiveness. He is a humble achiever who steadily works hard to achieve his goals. Taylor truly represents Honour Before Honours in all aspects of College life.

Jade Mitchell

Jade has a caring and selfless nature and is the first one to offer help or assistance to those in need. She is never shy of an academic challenge and shows perseverance and ambition when working towards her goals. Her work ethic and dedication is admirable. Jade is a genuine, honest and pleasant student to teach who embodies our school motto of Honour Before Honours.

Paige Martin

Paige is an exemplary student who consistently demonstrates the qualities of motivation, intelligence, ambition, perseverance and diligence. She is a humble achiever who strives for excellence. She is always polite and respectful to her fellow peers and offers support to those in need. Paige is a true asset to Ōtorohanga College.

Angel Greener

Angel constantly tries her best in academic, social or interhouse contexts. She is encouraging of all people and always lends a helping hand. She is silent in her accomplishments and diligently works hard in the background to achieve her goals. Angel's bubbly and kind personality adds value to every class. She is a true asset to Ōtorohanga College.

Year 13

Ash Smith

Ash's dedication and commitment to the things they are involved in is to be commended. Ash has been a leader in developing the Ōtorohanga College Rainbow Group, has been a strong advocate for students in the LGBT community and has been passionate about creating a more inclusive environment. Ash's vision and work towards this year's Ball is also testament to their willingness to volunteer their time and effort for others.

Molly Fox

Molly's dedication and leadership within her chosen sports of soccer and cricket have been excellent throughout her years at College. Molly has continuously held a key role in coaching, leading and encouraging other girls within these teams, especially junior students. Her competitive spirit, combined with her fair and humble attitude have made her a valuable member of every team she has been involved in. On and off the sportsfield Molly always honours others and herself in her commitment and behaviour. Molly is the epitome of the College motto of Honour Before Honours.

Kyla Pendergrast

Kyla consistently demonstrates Honour Before Honours. She is a kind, caring, friendly and genuine student who is dedicated to her learning and achieving success. She is positive and self-motivated and can reliably work independently. Kyla has shown resilience and determination when faced with challenges and has continued to strive to reach her goals. Kyla is a valued senior member of the 1st XI Girls Soccer Team showing commitment, leadership and dedication.

Zachary Coles

Zachary consistently honours himself and others in all areas of College life. He has gone above and beyond and involved himself in all College activities this year including numerous sports and House competitions as well as maintaining his academic studies. He is friendly and outgoing, gaining the respect of other students as a positive and enthusiastic leader. He is loyal, reliable and honest. Zachary has a wonderful sense of humour and easy going manner, while still taking on responsibility with maturity.

Principal's Awards

We move now to the Principal's Awards. These awards recognise one student in each year level who has demonstrated our College motto – Honour Before Honours.

Year 11

Takarei Bidios

Takarei, you represent Honour Before Honours at Ōtorohanga College. You are an outstanding Student Representative on the School Board - you serve with the highest integrity. When representing your College, as you did in Wellington, you do so with a maturity beyond your years, mana, excellence and a winning attitude. Your ability to appropriately bring humour and a cheerful attitude to any situation is an example of your advanced interpersonal skills. Your absolute care and concern for others, accepting diversity and genuinely desiring to see others succeed we honour.

Year 12

Mike Wanoa

Mike, you represent Honour Before Honours at Ōtorohanga College. You are a compassionate and kind person who always leads by example. Your friendly and helpful nature leaves other students feeling valued. You show an absolute care and concern for others, accepting diversity and genuinely desiring to see others succeed. You are dedicated to all areas of your academic study, often putting in the extra effort required for success. Your humble approach to being the best person that you can be we honour.

Year 13

Hamish Raine

Hamish, you represent Honour Before Honours at Ōtorohanga College. As a House Leader of note, you are known for your inclusive and cheerful manner and as a role model you are second to none. Captain of the 1st XI soccer team and the 1st XI cricket team, you have exhibited all the best aspects of leadership in your resiliency, honesty and integrity while embodying the competitive spirit in its most applaudable form. You have mentored, supported, advocated for and led by example as a respectful, nurturing and honest person. You show maturity beyond your years in your work ethic, your advocacy and your understanding. Your humble approach to being the best person that you can be we honour.

2023 Leaders

The process for selecting the 2023 Student Leaders has taken place over a number of weeks and involved student applications and staff endorsements as well as a formal interview to a panel comprising of Ms Te Huia, Mr Wilken, Mrs Joyce and myself. The wait is almost over.
